Also, in attendance: James Graff, Roberta Thompson, Mark Thompson, Beth Raab, Sharon Hipp, Jackie Rehm, Bob Cull, Josh Paral, William Rehm, Daniel Raab, Tracy Laumer, Tim & Meg Schoenecker.

Citizen Comments and Concerns:

James Graff talked about putting bathrooms in Stone Bank Park and what the next step is. He has been raising funds for the project.

Mark Thompson also talked about plans that were submitted about rest rooms at Stone Bank Park.

Tracy Laumer-Sodolski talked about Keesus Konkert and address any concerns that were brought up.

Beth Raab talked about the deer population and a request to look at doing a deer management program in the town. She gave information that she collected from the DNR, Waukesha County Sheriff, and other community programs that are out there.

Sharon Hipp talked about the increase of deer and recently was involved in a car accident with her vehicle. She would like to see some type of program.

Bill Rehm encouraged the town to take action to manage the deer herd and questioned the town hunting ordinance of being 200 yards off the property line and 200 yards from making it impossible to hunt on his two-acre parcel.

Jackie Rehm stated that she was involved with a deer/vehicle accident this year. She is also trying to reforest her property however the deer are killing the trees meaning thousands of dollars in property damage.

Tim Schoenecker is concerned about the deer population and is asking for some type of deer management program in the Town.

Meg Schoenecker is located by Nashotah park and concerned about the deer being around all the time in the residential areas.
